Quality Commitment:

The companies commit to provide services with the highest standards and excessive attention being placed on enhancing a health and safety conscious culture amongst our team to promote environmental protection and sustainability as an essential and integral part of corporate business, reflected in our service delivery methodology:

To deliver this commitment, we comply with all applicable local statutory, regulatory and legal requirements as well as relevant international laws and standards. In addition, we approach and deliver our provision of services in line with global best practices.

In order to fulfil and meet customer satisfaction effectively and safeguard the health and safety of our employees and customers, we set clear targets and objectives, provide adequate resources to implement the requirements of the Integrated Management System as stated in ISO 9001:2015, ISO 14001:2015 and ISO 45001:2018

Culture of Quality, Customer Service and Cooperation with other on-site Service Providers

Our corporate management are committed to the cause. Transparency and a clear understanding of the scope of work everyone does begins at management level and further down to workforce levels. Our top management leads and participate in cross-functional quality meetings and hold regular discussions of quality status and improvement initiatives with other service providers to ensure overall quality standards are maintained at site.

There has to be a cross-functional responsibility for quality transformation. Meaningful change to quality management needs to be implemented throughout the entire location, with measures rolled out across functions in order to boost cooperation among various departments and service providers at the same location from the very beginning. A centralized function need to be responsible for coordination and communication. It would promote governance issues in close cooperation with individual departments and service providers, as well as knowledge management and training

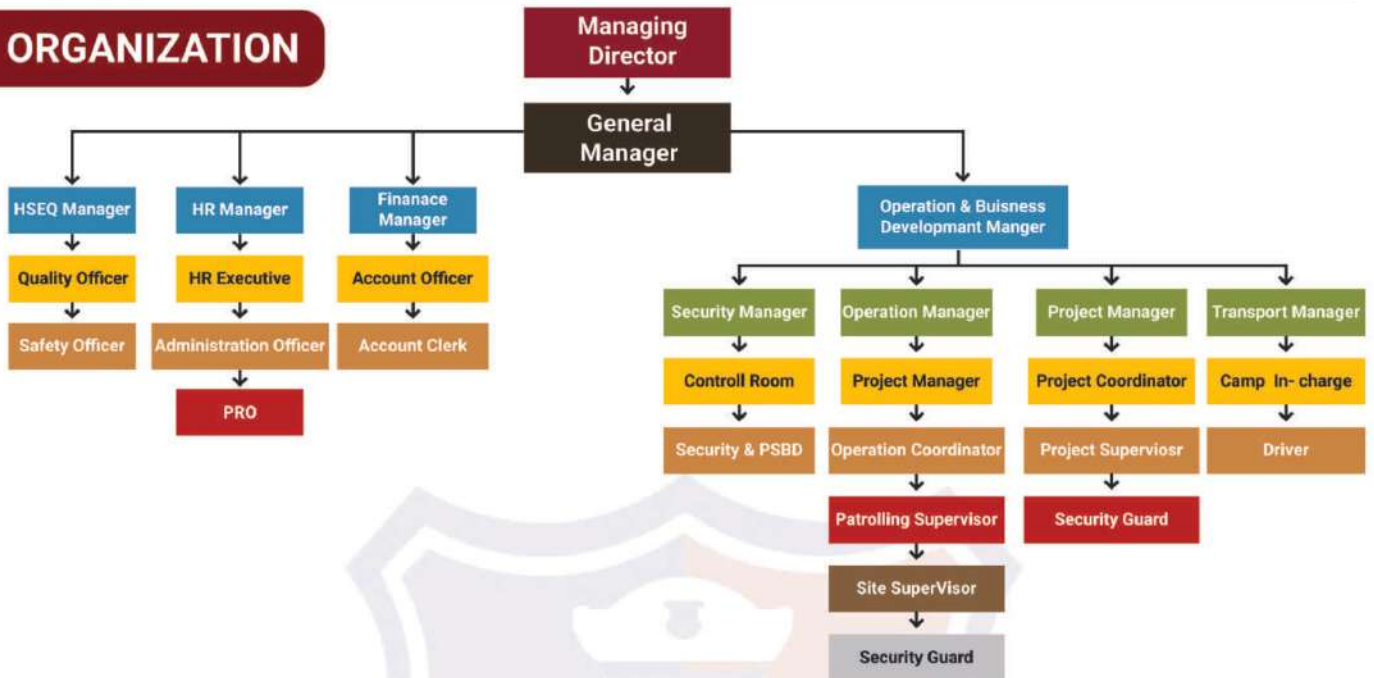

Al Wafa's Health & Safety Policy

It is Al Wafa policy to be committed to achieve total customer satisfaction by providing high and suitable quality of products and services. Al Wafa is committed to provide a safe place of work throughout all operations while endeavoring to eliminate or minimize environmentally adverse effects in accordance with stated and implied needs with all our clients and those associated with our business.

In all the facilities where Al Wafa is involved in delivering services, we promote the highest standards in health, safety, security, environment and quality preservation and protection by establishing, implementing and maintaining an integrated management system. To achieve these aims, we establish and work towards the following goals:

- ★ Prevent illness or injury by placing the highest priority on health.
- ★ Set and review HSE objectives and targets for continuous improvement.
- ★ Ensure a close working partnership with the clients to achieve mutually beneficial goals.
- ★ Comply with local laws and regulations, corporate standards and other requirements.
- ★ Ensure that each of our employees continues to have the necessary technical knowledge regarding safety by professional training and on the job training.
- ★ Provide site induction at the start of the project and for new staff arriving on site.
